

NAPSG
National Association of Principals of Schools for Girls

91st Annual Meeting

February 26-28, 2012
Seattle, Washington

*This year our NAPSG conference is in the same city as NAIS.
You can stay at the NAPSG Hotel (Fairmont Olympic) for NAIS as well.
Come to Seattle and stay for NAIS - One flight to both events.*

The Fairmont Olympic Hotel - an ideal location in downtown Seattle, close to the waterfront pier. This celebrated Seattle hotel is footsteps from many favorite local attractions including the famous Pike Place Market, Space Needle and Seattle Art Museum.

Two Registrations needed! - Reserve with NAPSG and with the Fairmont Olympic Hotel
NAPSG - Use the form included with this mailing - also on the www.napsg.org web page
HOTEL - Use the link on the NAPSG web page or call 1-888-363-5022 - NAPSG rate $199!

“The New World of Work”: Challenges and Opportunities

May 2010 Harvard Business Review:

“The makeup of the global workforce is undergoing a seismic shift”.

*Program Highlights****

SUNDAY

Keynote speaker Debra Dunn –Stanford University Institute of Design
Former V-P Hewlett Packard - Advisor to Social Ventures around the world.

MONDAY

Leo Laporte “The Tech Guy”

US-based journalist specializing in technology with coverage on radio, TV, and the Internet.
Michael Riera, Head - Brentwood School - CA: Author - “Staying Connected to Your Teenager”
“Beyond Technology - The Teacher-Student Connection”

Also on MONDAY we have an exciting trip opportunity**

VEP (Visiting Elites Program) trip to Microsoft
Followed by dinner at the Shilshole Bay Beach Club

TUESDAY

Pat Bassett - President - NAIS - “Pat Bassett Speaks to NAPSG”

Panel: “If We Build It, Will They Come?” – China and Korea - Emerging Trends

Mary Seppala, Agnes Irwin - New students from China - day school

Jill Muti, Ashley Hall - Leasing a building - adding a boarding component

Peter O’Neill (Garrison Forest) Boarding School - Numerous Asian students for many years

Karen Murton, Branksome Hall (Canada) - Building a new sister school in Korea

Panel: “Folio” – Entrepreneurship: A new on-line professional growth and evaluation system.

An independent corporation has been formed to develop and administer this system.

Part A: Entrepreneurship - Part B: Explanation of ‘Folio’

Charles Britton, Tim Fish and Kirsten Prettyman Adams, McDonogh School

FEES

 NAPSG encourages all spouses/partners and our retired Affiliate Members to join us – at a special rate.
“Meals only”: (2 dinners/beverages, 2 breakfasts, 2 receptions, 1 luncheon, 2 breaks and the Microsoft trip = $550).
Principal and Second Members from member schools, college members and employed Affiliates pay a conference fee of $680 (meals, receptions, breaks and program costs are covered).*

TRANSPORTATION

*The hotel is 15 miles from the Sea-Tac Airport. ‘Shuttle Express’ is offering a Van ride for $12.50 each way
<http://shuttleexpress.hudsonltd.net/res?USERIDENTRY=NAPSG&LOGON=GO> 1-800-324-9227*

SPA

*The Beauty Bar Seattle (New Spa at the Fairmont) (206) 621-1700 Ex. 3300, or 1-800-651-0420
<http://www.thebeautybarseattle.com/>*

❖ SCHEDULE

- Sunday 2/26/12 Optional events: Seattle Bites Food Tour (Two options: 10:15 AM AND 1:15 PM)
- 2 PM-3:30 PM (New Time) NAPSG Council meeting
 - 4:00-5:00 Registration - Lobby Area
 - 4:15 First time attendees meeting (Sunday dress is ‘business casual’)
 - 4:15 (New Meeting) ‘Second Members’ Meet and Greet
 - 5:00-5:45 Business Meeting and Memorials
 - 6:00 Keynote Speaker: Debra Dunn
 - 7:00 Reception and dinner
- Monday 2/27/12
- 8:00-9:00 Buffet Breakfast - (Optional break-outs: “Meet the Lawyer’ and Affinity Groups)
 - 9:00-10:15 Speaker: Leo Laporte
 - 10:15-10:45 Break
 - 10:45-12 Noon Speaker: Michael Riera
 - 12:15-1:15 Buffet Luncheon
 - 2:15 Buses load for trip to Microsoft (Monday afternoon and evening dress is ‘casual’)
 - 3:00-5:00 VEP Briefing - Microsoft
“The Visiting Elites Program (VEP) coordinates visits to Microsoft’s corporate headquarters with high-level government officials and influential VIPs, and seeks to build stronger relationships by promoting Microsoft’s business, policy and image objectives.”
 - 5:15 Depart Microsoft for Shilshole Bay Beach Club
 - 6:00 Reception, dinner and entertainment. (Return to Hotel by 9 PM)
- Tuesday 2/28/12
- 7:30-8:30 Buffet Breakfast
 - 8:30-9:00 Speaker: “Pat Bassett speaks to NAPSG”
 - 9:00-10:00 Panel: “If We Build It, Will They Come?”
 - 10:00-10:30 Break
 - 10:30-12:00 Panel: “Folio” How we created it - What it can do.
Conference adjourns
 - 12:30-1:30 Luncheon - Previous Seminar Faculty and potential faculty members (See special letter)
 - 2:00-3:00 Discussion: Seminar faculty with Search consulting firms.
Optional event: 1:00-5:30 Snoqualmie Falls & Tasting at 2 Wineries

Updated conference information will be on the NAPSG web page (<http://www.napsg.org>).

Should you have any questions, please call, write or e-mail NAPSG. We look forward to seeing you in February!

Bruce W. Galbraith

Bruce W. Galbraith
Executive Director

<http://www.napsg.org/>

23490 Caraway Lakes Drive, Bonita Springs, FL 34135-8441

Ph: (239) 947-6196 Fax: (239) 390-3245

NAPSG E-mail: napsg@mac.com