

MS. STEIN: We're going to end this part of our meeting, our opening meeting, with memorial resolutions presented by Burch Ford.

MS. FORD: Thank you. I think you all have gotten a copy of the printed version of these resolutions. Normally this is something that Blair Stambaugh oversees, but she wasn't able to be with us today because she had had some surgery, and I'm very pleased and honored to be taking her place. I think this is such an important thing to do, to take a few minutes and hear about and think about those heads of school, those former members of NAPSG who have come before us and who in this last year have died. It's also a wonderful reminder, by hearing about their service, how lucky we are to do the work that we do, because it really is God's work, and I think even on our most challenging days -- and we all have them -- we would all agree that there's no more important job and no greater honor than to do it.
